

CODE OF CONDUCT

Alfa Romeo Owners' Club of Australia (Vic) Inc AROCA Vic members are required, under the Articles of Association by which the Club operates and the following Code of Conduct, to behave and present themselves in an appropriate manner and to uphold the values, reputation and good name of AROCA Vic.

CODE OF CONDUCT

Honesty and integrity	AROCA Vic members must behave with honesty and integrity at all times during Club events and activities.
Care and diligence	AROCA Vic members must act with care and due diligence in the course of all Club events and activities.
Respect and courtesy	AROCA Vic members must treat everyone with respect, courtesy and without any form of harassment or discrimination when participating in Club events or activities.
Lawful compliance	AROCA Vic members must comply with all applicable Australian/Victorian laws when participating in Club events or activities.
Directive compliance	AROCA Vic members must comply with any lawful and reasonable direction given by any person given the authority to do so by the Club.
Confidentiality	AROCA Vic members must maintain appropriate standards of confidentiality in regard to any dealings that the member has with or relates to the Club.
Conflict of interest	AROCA Vic members must disclose, and take all reasonable steps to avoid any conflict of interest (whether real or perceived) in connection with Club events or activities.
Proper use of resources	AROCA Vic members must use the resources of the Club in an appropriate manner.
Undue advantage	AROCA Vic members must not make improper use of <ul style="list-style-type: none">• confidential information,• the member's position, duties, power or authority, to gain or seek to gain, a benefit or unfair advantage for either the member or for any other persons.
Behaviour - general	AROCA Vic members must, at all times, behave and present themselves in a manner that upholds the values, integrity and good reputation of the Club. AROCA Vic members must be cognisant that they represent the Club and any inappropriate behaviour reflects on and can damage the good reputation of the Club.

Notes:

1. The use of the word "Club" in the Code of Conduct refers to the Alfa Romeo Owners' Club of Australia (Vic) Inc (AROCA Vic).
2. The Code of Conduct applies to all participants at an event run by the Alfa Romeo Owners' Club of Australia (Vic) Inc, irrespective whether a participant is a member of the Alfa Romeo Owners' Club of Australia (Vic) Inc or not.
3. Failure to comply with the Code of Conduct will result in any infringement being dealt with at the time of the occurrence and/or being referred on to the Alfa Romeo Owners' Club of Australia (Vic) Inc Committee for further action.